It is the pleasure to attend such a meaningful programme with the recommendation and a portion of financial support from Asia Youth Council (AYC). The event “Global Entrepreneurs’ Forum(GEF) 2018”, is organised with the global theme of “Innovate and Impact”. As a global youth citizen, my main objective is to empower and inspire youths around the world. Somehow, cultural and ideal exchange across nation borders will inspire me in generating innovative idea with the aim to making the world a sustainable place together. Meanwhile, my objective in this programme achieved when I have been given an opportunity to give a short and simple speech with the theme “Youths and Entrepreneurs” to inspire youths at the beginning of this forum. The targeted audiences are the youths from Kathmandu World School.

During the meet with youth leaders, I have had small chat, discussion with them regarding on the Nepal youths' common interests. The interaction with them makes me understand on their efforts and strategies in engaging youths, and empower youths with their personal leadership skills, interpersonal skills, and sportsmanship. Their ideas are great and these ideas are valuable and it is also a good "souvenir" to my youth buddies in Malaysia and other countries as well.

Also have had pleasure to meet Guinness World Record for written "the longest title of a book" – Mr Srijan Timilsina.

Also have had pleasure to meet the founder of Mission Smile Nepal (MSN) – Ms Jasmine Ojha

In short, again, I would like to thank Asia Youth Council and International Youth Society for given me such and opportunity. I am always looking forward to work together with AYC in the sense of youth empowerment and development. Hopefully such support will be given by AYC to me in future again. A million thanks with warm regards.
